The Arkansas Black Hall of Fame Foundation was able to increase its grant awards by 50% last year. It is our third year objective to annually award $50,000 in grants to community organizations. It is our sixth year that objective is to annually award $100,000.00 in grants to organizations focused on health and wellness, education, youth development, economic and business development in the black community of Arkansas. Your support will help make these objectives possible.
